Air of the Wolf 1A, 1C, 2C

Dear Akelas,

Tonight we will be starting on elective adventure Air of the Wolf. They boys will be making paper airplanes to see how its shape affects flying distance. Next we will see how different levels of air pressure affects how well a basketball bounces. Finally, we will be exploring how speed can affect sound.

Achievement deadline is February 11th. Achievements will be distributed at the Blue and Gold Banquet. Extended family is invited to join the banquet. It is a special pack event celebrating the hard work of our scouts. In addition we will be having special entertainment for our event. Each family will be asked to bring a dish to the banquet, more details to follow on this.
