

Do Your Best!

January 24, 2013

Dear Parents,

Today will begin by reviewing the Home Assignment for Achievement 11 was completed. Our activity will be making puppets for a discussion group centered around Achievement 12- Making Choices. As long as any make up work from missed meetings and all home assignments are completed, we should be ready for our Wolf Badges next month at the Blue and Gold Banquet Feb 16. This is when we celebrate the "birthday" of Scouting across the country, for those that did not know what this stands for.

Reminder, because our scouts did such a great job with fundraising this year the leadership team has elected cover the cost of our Pack Bowling event on Feb 2! Your scout and up to 4 immediate family members are free. See the website for sign ups and additional details

Home Assignment: Look through your Wolf books or cattypack94.org to be sure everything is up to date so we can get those Wolf badges next month. A few scouts are ready, but not all of us. Start thinking of designs for Pinewood Derby cars!

Yours in Scouting,

James Polles- Wolf Leader Melissa Fischl- Wolf Leader Shawn Regits- Assistant Wolf Leader
