

Do Your Best!

January 31, 2013

Dear Parents,

Scouting for books kick off begins this week. Akela's we are collecting books for a new initiative, Scouting for Books- to donate gently used books to our public library and if we have an abundance, to the high rises, child care facilities and perhaps even our school library, so please bring them in throughout the month of February. In relation to that we will be working towards our arrow point Electives 12a, 6b and 6c- Be an Artist and Reading and Caring of Books.

Reminder Pack Bowling this Saturday Feb 2nd, meeting at St Paul's parking lot at 1215p.

We are anticipating that some of the parents will have to drive on their own as we will more than likely will not be able to accommodate the projected total number of attendees. Obviously the Scouts and chaperones will get to be riding the Big Orange Bus and we will add on from there based upon remaining seats.

SCOUT SUNDAY- All are invited to attend Scout Sunday worship at St. Paul's CCC February 10th- 10am- please arrive in Class A uniforms. If you wish to participate at your own place of worship, Scout Sunday is officially celebrated nationwide this Sunday February 3rd. Your Wolf will still receive credit for participating if he attends services in uniform. Just please let us know.

Home Assignment: Look through your Wolf books or cattypack94.org to be sure everything is up to date so we can get those Wolf badges. Start thinking of designs for Pinewood Derby cars!

Yours in Scouting,

James Polles- Wolf Leader Melissa Fischl- Wolf Leader Shawn Regits- Assistant Wolf Leader
